Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., March 7, 188 8.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia.

Sir:

In continuation of the subject of my letter of yesterday about pay-rolls, I hand you herewith a statement in terms of wages,&c., by which the question is freed from the circumstances of overtime on the one hand and the double shift on the other. Without analysis of this statement, you will observe the increase on about the same scale that I called your attention to yester--day.

I supposed that many of the laborers taken on at the time of the structural changes in the basement would ere now have been discharged, not regarding their employment permanent.

I merely lay this matter before you in the present form, hoping that this will aid you in devising some way of reducing force.

Respectfully yours,

Jos. Lindsee

Director of the Mint.
